Our Recent Student Accomplishments

Nicholas Brown ’12 had one of his ceramic pieces, a tea bowl, accepted into a national juried exhibition at the Kansas City Clay Guild Tea Bowl National. Brown’s work was displayed at the Bruce R. Watkins Cultural Heritage Center in Kansas City, Mo., from June 10 to July 11, 2011. Typically about 70 pieces are chosen from more than 300 entries, most of which come from professional artists.

Our Recent Graduates in Graduate School

Jenn Moss ’11 is pursuing a master’s degree in art education. While she studies, she hopes to gain teaching experience by teaching art at a private school.

Erica Quinn ’10 is currently enrolled in the Masters of Fine Arts program at the Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, N.Y. Her current creative interests are photography, modern art history and contemporary museum studies.

Our Recent Graduates in the Workforce

Naomi Bean ’11 is employed at both The Shaw Galleries and the Carnegie Science Center.

Amelia Hewner ’09 is employed as the Finance Coordinator at the Massachusetts Museum of Contemporary Art. Her POE in business and museum studies helped uniquely prepare her for this multi-faceted position.

Claire Wakefield ’09 is currently employed as the Office Manager and Membership Assistant at the Antique Boat Museum in Clayton, NY.

What Our Alumni Are Saying

“...What I like most about Juniata’s Art Department is that there are a variety of art POEs with similar course requirements, which allows students from different areas to work together and learn about different branches of art study.”

- Erica Strang ’11
